If you wish you could have seen CHICAGO® in the 1970s, you need to see Brass Metropolis!

About Brass Metropolis:

Brass Metropolis is an eight-piece band that has all the excitement, artistry and virtuosity of early Chicago Transit Authority. The band's performance takes you on a musical journey, which brings together all of the elements that made CHICAGO® extraordinary: the contrast and interplay between Terry Kath and Peter Cetera, intricate vocal arrangements, a phenomenal horn section, and a dazzling rhythm section. It's all about the music, no gimmicks or backing tracks. If you wish you could have seen CHICAGO® in the 1970s, you need to see Brass Metropolis!

About CHICAGO:

CHICAGO is one of the longest-running and best-selling bands of all time. Since their first release in 1969, they have sold over 100 million records! The iconic group had five consecutive number-one albums and 20 top-ten singles. In 1974, Chicago had seven albums, its entire catalog at the time, on the Billboard top 200 simultaneously. The group collected 21 top 10 singles, 5 consecutive number one albums, 11 number one singles, and 5 gold singles.
